1. Introduction

Hope into Action, Eastbourne (HIA) is committed to providing high quality services in an efficient, effective and economic way, and within approved budgets.

Complaints are a valuable source of feedback, helping us understand how and why things go wrong and enabling us to prevent reoccurrence. Where mistakes have been made, Hope into Action, Eastbourne will ensure that appropriate action is taken to rectify them.

You have a responsibility to report things that you feel are not right, are illegal, or if anyone at work is neglecting their duties.

Staff are always and rightly, going to be worried about repercussions of reporting abuse or poor practice. It can be difficult to be the person that stands up and name someone responsible for poor practice, but Hope into Action, Eastbourne promotes a culture which values good practice and encourages openness.

1.1. Other policies

This document should be read in conjunction with:

- Grievance section of staff handbook
- Whistleblowing policy

2. Policy objectives

The objectives of the Complaints Policy are to:

- resolve complaints at the first point of contact wherever possible, without recourse to the formal procedures;
- make it easy to complain and to ensure that all those we work with know how to do so;
- ensure that the complainant (or the person acting on their behalf) has prompt and regular feedback on the progress of the complaint;
- ensure that the complainant is dealt with confidentially, effectively and fairly.
- record all complaints, identify any negative trends in service delivery and take action to maintain and improve service quality and effectiveness,
- deal effectively with vexatious or unreasonable complaints.
- Ensure we are accessible to our licencees and to reduce the risk of un-reported safeguarding issues.

3. Procedures

3.1. Definitions

A complaint is any expression of dissatisfaction about the standard of service, action or inaction by Hope into Action, Eastbourne, its employees, board members, contractors, partners or licencees. Examples could include:

- failure to carry out landlord responsibilities;
- failure to achieve our standards of service;
- complaints about the way our policies work;
- acting unfairly, with bias or discrimination;
- complaints about the attitudes of our staff, contractors or others working on our behalf.

a) Formal and informal complaints

All complaints are usually dealt with at the first point of contact with a member of staff (usually the person handling the enquiry), and the aim is to resolve the issue 'there and then'. If it cannot be resolved at that point of contact then the complaint will need to be escalated to the formal process. Staff should offer help for complaints to be made or support complainants to get advice from CAB.

Formal complaints may arise if the informal complaint process is not resolved satisfactorily, or if the complainant wishes to formally complain about a matter. In such cases the staged procedure will be followed.

All formal and informal complaints will be recorded to identify trends and make improvements to service delivery.

b) Complaints which fall outside the scope of this policy

Complaints falling outside of this policy are:

- complaints about issues that are subject to on-going legal proceedings by or against Hope into Action, Eastbourne are outside the scope of this policy. Hope into Action, Eastbourne may suspend the complaints procedure in the event of legal action being threatened or initiated, pending legal advice;
- complaints by members of staff, which should be dealt with under the Grievance Procedure as outlined in the Staff Handbook;
- housing benefit assessments or payments: these are the responsibility of the local authority;
- insurance claims, which shall be referred immediately to Hope into Action, Eastbourne insurers.
- Whistleblowing. This can be found in the whistle-blowing policy.

c) Complaints about Board Members

Where serious complaints are received about the impropriety of Board Members or members of staff, such issues may be dealt with separately under Governance or Human Resources procedures and may also be referred to regulatory bodies or other appropriate organisations if appropriate.

If you need to contact the Chair of our Board or any other member of the board then their names can be found on the charity commission website. Or, if you send an e-mail to david@kingdomwaytrust.org then it will be automatically forwarded to more than one board member.

d) Complaints about senior staff or volunteer

A senior staff member is considered someone who is working at coordinator level or someone who has worked for the organization for 3 years or more or anyone else for whom the CEO or Board members deem have a close relationship with to the point of significantly under-mining objectivity.

In the event of a complaint about a senior member of the staff. The board may appoint an independent HR firm to investigate the complaint. This will remove bias and ensure a rigorous, objective process.

e) Complaints about staff or volunteers

Staff not considered senior will be investigated the CEO. If you have a complaint about a staff member then please send it to: roland@kingdomwaytrust.org

f) Complaints about franchise partners

A complaint to one Hope into Action anywhere is a risk to the reputation of Hope into Action, everywhere.

Hope into Action have oversight of the complaints across the network. This will help us analyse trends, support partners through difficult processes and situations and alert us to poor practice.

Complaints monitoring will form part of HIA quality assurance monitoring visits and reporting will be required on an annual basis to HIA support centre. In the event of a particularly difficult, vexatious, risky complaint HIA should be informed at the time to offer support and help prepare for or mitigate the risks.

On an annual basis franchisees will be required to send in the complaints, written up. This will then be securely and confidentially filed by HIA in line with the data retention policy. This will mean records are kept in the event of a complaint re-surfacing later.

Tenants ('tenants' are the occupiers and includes 'licensees' where applicable) of franchise partners cannot appeal to us but we must be made aware at the time, as stated above, of any complaint which is particularly risky or vexatious.

g) Complaints from neighbours

When a neighbour complains about recurring antisocial behaviour, Hope into Action, Eastbourne will provide an incident record book (refer to appendix 1)

h) Complaints from staff

This is covered in the staff handbook.

i) Complaints from churches

A church wishing to complain to Hope into Action, Eastbourne should do so via e-mail, setting out their complaint clearly and concisely.

j) Complaints from tenants

It is vital that tenants know how to complain and that it is as easy as possible for them to do so. The following is in place:

- On their induction check-list the Empowerment Workers are reminded to brief them on complaints.
- Licensees will be encouraged to resolve the issues face-to-face with the person they have a complaint against.

- On their license/ tenancy agreement is included a section on 'how to complain.'
- On the wall/in the folder of each house is a notice explaining how to complain.
- All our websites have our complaints policy on the footer.
- Licensees are encouraged to complain via e-mail: info@kingdomwaytrust.org

k) Complaints from tenants about another tenant.

In reality our tenants will often complain about other tenants. Empowerment workers are encouraged to resolve these complaints between the two tenants, (top-tip: calling a house meeting and putting the complaint on the agenda can work).

If however the matter becomes more serious and concerns danger to the house, the tenant, or any form of abuse then it will need to be treated as a formal complaint and tenants should be encouraged to make a complaint to the line manager of the Empowerment Worker. Please also see Safeguarding Policy to see if it should be raised as a safeguarding issue.

l) Unreasonable, persistent and vexatious complaints

Examples of complaint which Hope into Action, Eastbourne would consider unreasonable, persistent or vexatious could include those in which the complainant:

- has previously made the same or a similar complaint which has been investigated but not upheld, and there is no further information in support of a new complaint;
- is aggressive or abusive to staff, contractors or others working on behalf of Hope into Action, Eastbourne;
- fails to engage in the complaints process or uses it as a form of protest.

In such cases the relevant Director shall review each such complaint separately. It will not be assumed that someone who has been unreasonable or vexatious in the past might be so with the current complaint. The Director will decide whether the complaint falls under this definition, and write to the complainant advising him/her of this decision. Information about the procedure and the right to take the complaint to the Ombudsman will be provided. The following courses of action may be taken:

- termination of the complaint;
- restricting all communications to writing;
- declining further communication about a specific issue;
- dealing with the complaint in a different way to that outlined in the policy and guidelines.

Such complaints shall be recorded and analysed in the same way as all other complaints.

m) Anonymous complaints

The nature of all anonymous complaints will be recorded. Any anonymous complaint will only be referred for investigation or other action if it includes documentary or photographic evidence indicating a serious or significant matter.

3.2. Reporting

All complaints should be made known to the Hope into Action, Eastbourne

a) Making sure that people know how to complain

Hope into Action, Eastbourne will publicise its complaints procedure in a variety of ways, including:

- information in Tenant / Licence Agreement;
- asking licensees for occasional feedback;
- On our website – the complaints policy is on our website and this includes an e-mail address to lodge a complaint;
- A notice will be on the wall/in the folder of every home;

Hope into Action, Eastbourne will arrange for the provision of translation services, audio and Braille on request.

b) Accessible complaints process

At all stages, Hope into Action, Eastbourne will endeavour to remove any barriers to making a complaint. Complaints may be made by the method preferred by the complainant. This may include phone, letter, email, face-to-face and using the website.

Help will be offered to those who wish to complain. This may include (but is not restricted to) a staff member taking written details, visiting the complainant or arranging translation services. An advocate (such as a relative, case worker or solicitor) may register a complaint if the complainant is unable to do so for themselves. In such cases, the complainant must give Hope into Action, Eastbourne authority to liaise with the third party.

- The complaints policy shall be on all websites as a footer.

3.3. Confidentiality

All complaints will be dealt with in the strictest confidence, and in line with GDPR principles. There will be no adverse consequences for complainants such as the removal of a service. Information about trends and types of complaints will be published, but no individual or groups will be identifiable. More information on this may be found in the GDPR Policy.

3.4. Filing

All filing will be kept confidentially. When the complaint process is finalized, all documentation will be submitted to the Executive Director who will file it in the board section of share-point. Once successfully uploaded to this site all other copies will be destroyed. Hope into Action, Eastbourne will retain these copies in line with the GDPR policy.

3.5. Feedback and remedies

Providing a remedy to the complaint is a key element of an effective feedback system. The member of staff investigating the complaint should contact the complainant, at the earliest opportunity, to:

- discuss and clarify the complaint;
- identify facts and information to support the complaint;
- understand what remedy or resolution the complainant is seeking;
- identify if the complainant requires support (e.g. translation services etc);
- explain the procedure.

Examples of remedies or resolutions may include:

- an apology;
- assurance that the same thing will not be repeated;
- an explanation of what has gone wrong and why;
- a description of the remedial action to be taken;
- the provision of the service originally requested;
- discussion and feedback;
- compensation.

The CEO responsible for the service shall always consider actions to prevent recurrence. These may include changes to procedures, staff training and feedback to contractors.

a) Good-will Gestures

In exceptional circumstances upon approval from the CEO, Hope into Action, Eastbourne may offer compensation in the form of a goodwill gesture such as a gift of flowers. Such a gesture does not necessarily imply acceptance, guilt, or responsibility for the complaint.

3.6. Timescales

A complaint should be made within 3 months of the service being delivered or requested.

Hope into Action, Eastbourne will register, and aim to resolve, all complaints informally at the first point of contact. Where a satisfactory solution cannot be, or has not been, achieved, the complainant may wish to escalate the matter to status of a formal complaint.

3.7. The staged procedure for dealing with formal complaints is:

STAGE	PROCESS	TIMESCALE
1.	Registration and investigation of complaint. This will normally be dealt with by a front-line member of staff, as long as they are not the subject of the complaint.	Written response within 10 working days

3.	Appeal to a panel of 2 members of the Board. The complainant or their representative may attend to present their case.	The Panel will convene within 2 weeks of receipt of the stage 3 complaint, and the complainant will be provided with details of the protocol and procedure. The outcome will be sent in writing within 5 days of the Panel meeting.

	independently review the complaint, but only after the above process has been exhausted.

In some circumstances, timescales may be exceeded. An example would be delays as a result of the request of information from third parties. In such cases, the complaint will be acknowledged within 3 working days of being lodged, and an estimate of the likely timescale will be provided. Regular updates will be given to keep the complainant informed of any unanticipated or further delays.

Generally cases will be closed within the following timescales. This may be waived if there is a genuine reason that has been considered at Director level. In all other cases, if a fresh or related complaint is made, that is not unreasonable or vexatious, it will be recorded and dealt with as a new complaint.

Complaints will be included in quarterly performance reports to the Board. Annually, a review of complaints will be presented to the Board with an action plan for improvements.
